MY OWN TOWN

Breathes there a man with a soul so dead, that never to himself hath said, This is my own, my native town? . . . It suits my inner feeling's fine, to think along this sort of line, and no fresh guy can call me down. . . . I've allers knew that civic pride should fill the village dweller's hide, and leave no space for slacker stuff. I'll sight ye to our City Hall, our Churches, Schools, our Streets, an' which shows that we keep up to snuff! I hate to see a baliwick all littered up with boards an' brick, acryin' out in vain for paint. It hurts to see the wimmen-folks a-peelin' spuds or artichokes,—pretendin' somethin' that they ain't. . . . The village corporation lends a smart distinction to its friends, who allers hold some sheers of stock. . . . You'll notice public spirit here, from up about our Mayor's cheer, to the husky babies in our block! You might select our well-groomed streets, as fittin' place to spread the eats, if you should like to dine in town. . . . but gosh,—of course you wouldn't dare—the wheels of progress, rollin' there, would spill yer drinks an' knock yer down!

Mrs. J. S. Sturm returned Thursday of last week from several days visit with her mother, Mrs. M. M. In a recent issue of the Globe-Democrat, the name of our own John Baird appeared in the list of those who had passed the bar examination recently. Thus it is that a Hayti product has been admitted to practice law within the state of Missouri, and only proves what any boy with many obstacles to overcome, may do if there is sufficient determination to do it. He has been employed in St. Louis for several years doing stenographic work in the day time, and taking special law training at night.
